

09 Jan 2010

eScan customers can celebrate this New Year with gifts

eScan has offered an exciting offer for their customers this new year. As per the company, customers who purchase eScan during the offer period will get a chance to win amazing prizes. To participate in the offer, a customer will have to buy products such as eScan AntiVirus Edition; Scan Internet Security Suite; eScan AntiVirus Edition for SMB or eScan Internet Security Suite for SMB.

Govind Rammurthy
CEO and Managing Director, eScan

After buying one of the above mentioned products, the customer will have to install eScan and activate it within January 15 2010 and will have to register on <http://www.mwti.net/newyeaeroffer> before January 15 2010 to validate their purchase.

The lucky draw will be conducted on January 22 and the winners will be intimated by e-mail. Winners of the lucky draw can win exciting prizes like high range laptops, smart mobile phones, trendy wrist watches, iPods, etc.

Govind Rammurthy, Managing Director and CEO of eScan said, "We take this opportunity to thank and reward our customers who have been an integral part of our success. We will keep innovating our solutions to suit the ever-changing security needs and provide a secure and safe computing experience for all our customers. We wish all our customers a happy, prosperous and secure New Year."

D-Link launches program for partners to better support customers

Cyberstar strengthens warranty programs

Kingmax unveils 42-in-1 multi-function card reader

eScan customers can celebrate this New Year with gifts

Matrix wins EFY Readers' Choice Award

Logitech unveils laser tracking mouse

Cyberstar to distribute Panduit Solutions in India

D-Link appoints Redington as its ND

Newgen launches products at customer meet in Mumbai

Sharda University to script its success with Oracle PeopleSoft Campus solutions

ZyXEL organised channel meet for the West Delhi Partners

Channel Talk

KK Shetty, Director, Tyco Electronics India