Wednesday, December 30, 2009: eScan is announcing new year offer for its customers in India. Under the offer, customers who purchase eScan during the offer period get a chance to win exciting prizes. To participate in the offer, a customer will have to buy any of these products -- eScan AntiVirus Edition, Scan Internet Security Suite, eScan AntiVirus Edition for SMB and eScan Internet Security Suite for SMB.

After buying one of the above mentioned products, the customer will have to install eScan and activate it within 15 January 2010. After activating eScan, customers have to register on <http://www.mwti.net/newyeareoffer> before 15th January to validate their purchase.

The lucky draw will be conducted on 22 January 2010, and the winners will be intimated by email. Winners of the lucky draw can win prizes like laptops, mobile phones, wrist watches, iPods, etc.

Govind Rammurthy, managing director and chief executive officer, eScan, said, "We take this opportunity to thank and reward our customers who have been an integral part of our success. We will keep innovating our solutions to suit the ever changing security needs and provide a secure and safe computing experience for all our customers. We wish all our customers a happy, prosperous and secure New Year."
